

lyrics of a psycho

Von Yamiku

Kapitel 1: Self Destruction

Throw all to pieces.
Break everyone close to you.
Trample down all the shards, till they're screaming.

Nothing bothers you but your own happiness.
Your eternal egoism, there's nothing else.

The red moon covers the darkness.
Shadows run through the night.
All you can do is destroying.
Your ways are paved with cadavers.

Holy person high in the light.
Fool yourself by putting white clothes on you.
Behind the surface they're imbued with blood.

I may be a masochist, a foolish person, the black shadow following.
Call me an idiot, but please stay.
I'm your puppet.
Please destroy me!

The red moon covers the darkness.
Shadows run through the night.
Screams escape from them.
Following everywhere bring nightmares.

Holy person high in the light.
I want to overturn you. Fall down to the darkness.
Is it sin to love what hurts?
If you think love is a crime, hate me and be mine.

Throw all to pieces.
Break everyone close to you.
Trample down all the shards, till they're screaming.

Nothing bothers you but your own happiness.

Your eternal egoism, there's nothing else.
