Unbelievers

They say, that was a book you've read.
They say, that was a movie you've watched.
They say, that was a picture you've seen.
They say, that was a song you've listened.
They say, that was a rumor you've heard.
They say, that was a dream you've dreamt.
They say, that was a lie you've believed.
They say, that was a friend you've trusted.
They say, that was loneliness you've felt.
...and they never heard about your own reality.
