Ame to Namida

Ame to Namida

Rain is falling
Just like tears
Seems like heaven is crying
Crying these tears that are stuck inside me

I can't stand these feelings inside me
They're killing me
I can't voice them
Can't find a way to get rid of them
I can't even find a proper name for them
It's not only fear, mistrust and the feeling of being hated
It's an incoherent mix of feelings that send my brain into emotional overload

Rain is falling
Just like tears
Seems like heaven is crying
Crying these tears that are stuck inside me

Emotional overload
Getting pregnant with deadly thoughts
Wanting to get rid of them
Tearing them or me apart
Can't I get a start
Can't I find a way
Please you feelings...just leave me be

Rain is falling
Just like tears
Seems like heaven is crying
Crying these tears that are stuck inside me

I'm standing in this rain
It's faking the tears I can't cry
They're running down my cheeks

I look like a drowned angel
I want to be reborn
Reborn as what I am
A wretched little brat of a demon and an angel

Rain is falling
Just like tears
Seems like heaven is crying
Crying these tears that are stuck inside me

I'm standing in the rain
Faking my tears again
I'm faking them with rain and blood
Please believe me
I love you all
I go to god

Rain is falling
Just like tears
Seems like heaven is crying
