Memories

*Do you still remember
The play of colours
At the sunrise
Do you still remember
All the colours
Painted on sunset's heaven
And do you remeber us staying awake
for the whole night
- voluntarily –
watching the stars
Do you still remember
The two of us down there
Lying at the beach
Embracing each other
Dreaming of the future
Waiting for sunrise*

*Do you still remember
The play of colours
At the sunrise
Do you still remember
You swearing to follow me
Until the end of eternity
Do you still remember
Me kissing you at sunset??
Remember...
But We'll never see again...*
