

Always For You

Von Riafya

Always For You

Scream as loud as you can
Because today has to end
There's nothing to stop me

Cry out as if you were alone
Your reasons are so wrong
Now there's no time to plead

I wish you could just see
What you mean to me
What I tried to do
And that I always believe in you
All of this seems so wrong
But I need to be strong
For you
Only you

Oh, why can't we just flee
Far beyond the sea
To a world without sadness

Or maybe across the sky
An eternal goodbye
Far away from this madness

How I wish you could see
What you mean to me
What I tried to do
And that I always believe in you
All of this seems so wrong
But I need to be strong
For you
Just for you

My brother
I'm sorry to fail you again
You wanted to save me
But I brought you torment
Now that we stand
At the root of that tree
There's something
I want to know from thee

Tell me
Why can't you just see
What you mean to me
What I tried to do
And that I always believe in you
All of this seems so wrong
But I need to be strong
For you
Always for you
