Spy-guy

Hey, Spy-guy
Come on, tell me why
You have done this
All this time
Were you living a lie
And others had to die
I want to know: Why?

You were hiding yourself
Behind a false name
Behind a smiling mask
You were playing a game
A deadly game
Is there no shame?
But I can't blame
You alone for this
I know how it is
It was your mission
But...

Hey, Spy-guy
Come on, don't be shy
You have done this
All this time
You were living a lie
And others had to cry
So don't be shy

*You were playing hide and seek
But now...
No more hiding!*

The mask is falling down
Heads are spinning 'round

All are looking at you
This is the first time
They can see the true you
But now it is too late
You accomplished your fate
You turned and you left
Leaving the disaster
Headin back to your master
His most loyal servant returns...

And I say it again
Hey, Spy-guy
Come on, don't be shy
Please tell me why
All this time
You were living a lie
And others had to die
Just please tell me why
Please tell me why
