Drifting away

Drifting away

Verse 1

Darkness all around
Everything is painful.
I can't feel the ground.
It breaks my sensitive soul.

Searching for the light
I can't stand the blackness anymore.
I want to find in my life.
What is this all for?

Bridge

I hate my life
More than ever
I'd like to dive
And come up never
I hate to feel
I have confessed
Nothing is real
I am depressed

Chorus

Nights are cold
days are long.
Don't want to be lost
so I have to be strong.

There is no other way.
My heart is incurable

I'm drifting away,
I am insensible.

Verse 2

My life makes me sad
You can't prevent
I want to be dead
In this moment

I won't die later
Cause your life will be
So much greater
Without me

Bridge

I hate my life
More than ever
I'd like to dive
And come up never
I hate to feel
I have confessed
Nothing is real
I am depressed

Chorus

Nights are cold
days are long.
Don't want to be lost
so I have to be strong.

There is no other way.
My heart is incurable
I'm drifting away,
I am insensible.

Ending

I'm drifting away on an ocean of tears can't see an island.
I'm waiting for you here
and for your help
but I guess I have to help myself.
I'm drowning in my own tears.
