

My little angel

Von -Bloody_Nia_Neko-

Sitting in a crowded room,
but feeling all alone.
But what can I do?
Just think about you...
It's getting loud around me,
but I can only hear your voice in my mind,
my feelings are jumping up and down in my empty head.
You said you want to turn my life to a better side, and that you can't live this kind of life any longer, you'll start a new life far away from me.
But...how can I have a better life without you,
I can't understand it...
You are my destiny, the power of my life, my little angel.
You've gone...You don't care about me...
You want me to die??
I don't want to live an empty, lonely life so I'm going to fulfil your wish.
Your wish is my command!
Goodbye!
