

A little pray for Suigintou

Von Aesthe_Siren

What kind of life did you live what you did was never enough no one looked at you you walked all alone
You were so lonely
the wind was so cold but you still went on even when your feet were frozen and your eyes went blind You always keep on going and now I'm so shocked when I look at the body that lay in the snow, Suigintou
