

Feelings from inside

Von Solonishi

Kapitel 12: Oh god

What's up with this fucking world?
I just feel so cold
My scream can't break the silence and, where is the endless freedom?

Oh god, I hate my painful life
Oh god, is there nobody?
Oh god, why I'm living here?

Where is the love?
The rain in my heart
Is red and full of pain
My feelings are killing me

Oh god, I hate my painful life
Oh god, is there nobody?
Oh god, why I'm living here?

It's too easy to die
Try to break the silence and feel the inside hate is like dying in the colour of love

Oh god, I hate my painful life
Oh god, is there nobody?
Oh god, I just want some...love

But there's nothing in my head...
