

Love and Hate

Von Ryu_no_Sekai

Kapitel 7: Couldn't Love Anyone More

Sometimes I wish I knew a way,
To let you go
'Cause I wished I'd never fall for you,
Never tried to get so near
And never cried myself to sleep

Sometimes I wish I knew a way
To just be friends
'Cause I hate myself for loving you,
For being without you
And for letting you know

And always I wish I knew a way,
To let you know:
I wouldn't change a thing
'Cause it's always you who makes me smile,
Who makes me laugh and sing,
And dance and fly

And always I try to find the words to say:
You're my guiding light,
The reason of my life
'Cause every thought is you,
And all my hopes are all my thoughts

And everytime I see your smile
All my problems fade away,
I'm losing ground and start to fly,
'Cause my heart's beating fast
Like it doesn't belong to me and just belongs to you
