

no one cares.. but me.

Von Akiihime

i do.

I'm just thinking too much and too deep,
about things no one cares about.

Not even me..

Why do I care, what they say about me?
I told you I don't, but i do.

He lied so much to me,
and i really don't care about it anymore,

but why are you doing these things you do?
for me - or did he wanted you to?

I never asked 'cus i was scared
what kind of story will you tell me?

i think i'll fall in love with you
and even if no one cares..

I do.
